3. PUBLIC INQUIRIES

Darrin Underhill re: Bike Rodeo

Mr. Underhill provided a verbal explanation regarding the interest from the community in hosting another RCMP Bike Rodeo and was interested in knowing the calendar for the upcoming month/summer to correlate with another ongoing event.

It was suggested that this event take place in June for ParticipACTION and discussions of dates as well as possible grant money donations were brought forward.

Mr. Underhill confirmed to report back to the Recreation Coordinator on dates after further conversation with his team.

4. COMMUNITY CALENDAR & VOLUNTEER FAIR UPDATE

The final details and confirmation of sponsor donations for the Volunteer Fair were confirmed. It was suggested that thank you cards and an article in the paper are processed to sponsors to show our gratitude.

Moved by Councillor Lodge

Seconded by Mayor Stamer

That the Recreation Committee purchase an article in the newspaper to thank sponsors with funds coming from the Recreation budget.

CARRIED

5. PARTICIPACTION UPDATE

Chair Lodge and Ms. Mosdell provided an update that ParticipACTION's website is now open for registration. Conversation ensued regarding the importance for the Recreation Committee to encourage participants to use the website to log their whole families' minutes.

6. COMMITTEE APPOINTMENTS

It was reported that Councillor McInnis is not available often for Recreation Committee meetings but is still able to participate while Councillor Armstrong is no longer available to attend. Discussion ensued regarding member Theresa LeRose also not being available at this time but possibly later in the future and the importance of needing a quorum during Rec Meetings.

Working meetings were explained as well as the benefits of having the structure in Recreation Committee meetings as to show records of conversation but it was confirmed that there is flexibility to invite others to attend meetings or working groups. Public attendees are able to attend and, with permission from the Chair, can participate in the conversation, but are not able to vote on any motion.

Moved by Mayor Stamer
Seconded by Glenda Feller
That Councillor Armstrong and Theresa LeRose be removed from the Recreation Committee.

CARRIED

Mayor Stamer reported that he has appointed Councillor Kibble to the Recreation Committee.
